365-Day Reading Plan (2026)

Welcome. Whether this is your first time reading the Bible or you've read it many times, this plan was created with you in mind.

Rhythm: Days 1–6 are reading days (about 15–20 minutes). Every 7th day is a Grace Day (catch up / reflect / pray).

Daily structure: Old Testament (2–3 chapters) + New Testament (1 chapter until complete).

Miss a day? Don't restart. Don't quit. Just keep going — grace is already built in.

Completion note: This plan covers all 66 books, every chapter, and — by reading full chapters — every verse of the Bible.

As you come to the end of this plan, remember this, the goal was never to rush through Scripture, but to walk with God daily. If you completed every day exactly as written — praise God. If you needed Grace Days more than once — praise God. If your year looked different than you imagined — praise God still.

What matters most is that you showed up, opened the Word, and allowed it to shape you little by little.

May what you've read continue to live in you, guide your decisions, steady your faith, and draw you closer to God in every season ahead. Keep going.

The Word is alive — and so is the work God is doing in you.

A Call to Faith

As you've read through Scripture, you may sense God inviting you into something deeper.

For some, this is a first step — choosing to place your trust in Jesus Christ for the very first time.
For others, it's a return — a moment to realign your heart, renew your commitment, and come back to God after a season of distance.

Wherever you find yourself today, know this: God's invitation is the same.
He welcomes you with grace, not judgment.
He calls you by name, not by your past.

You don't need to have everything figured out.
You only need a willing heart.

If you're ready to begin — or begin again — you can respond right now.

A Prayer of Salvation and Rededication

Pray this prayer quietly or out loud, allowing these words to reflect the desire of your heart.

Father God,
I come to You just as I am.
I believe that You love me and that You sent Jesus Christ for me.

I believe that Jesus lived, died for my sins, and rose again so that I could have new life.
Today, I place my trust in Him as my Lord and Savior.

If there are places where I have drifted, grown weary, or lost my way, I ask You to restore me.
I turn my heart fully back to You and recommit my life to Your care.

Forgive me. Cleanse me. Renew me.
Lead me by Your Spirit and help me walk with You daily.

Thank You for Your grace, Your mercy, and Your unfailing love.
From this day forward, I choose to follow You.

In Jesus' name,
Amen.

A Closing Encouragement

Whether today marks the beginning of your faith or a renewed commitment, know that God is faithful. He walks with you, strengthens you, and continues the good work He has started in your life.

You are not alone — and you are never too far to return.

ABOUT DR. AUTUMN

Dr. Autumn Fair is a faith-guided leader, educator, and strategist committed to helping women grow with clarity, discipline, and purpose.

Her work sits at the intersection of faith, leadership, and execution — not performative spirituality, but practical, daily alignment with God's Word and God's order. She believes consistency matters more than intensity, and that transformation is built quietly, one obedient step at a time.

This Bible-in-a-Year plan was created to support that discipline — not to rush Scripture, but to make space for it. It is designed for real life, real schedules, and real faith journeys, with grace for the days you miss and encouragement to return.

Dr. Autumn teaches and leads with a simple conviction:
time with God changes everything — when we actually make time.

May this plan meet you where you are, anchor you in truth, and carry you forward through the year ahead.
